

Nguyen Thanh Thuy is one of the most prominent dan tranh soloists in Vietnam. Since she got The First Prize and Best Traditional Music Performer Prize in Vietnam 1998, she active in both traditional and experimental fields. Her interest is improvisation in traditional and contemporary music. She has recorded and toured in many countries. As a visiting lecturer she has given lectures at Hanoi Drama and Cinematography University (1999) and at Malmo Academy of Music, Lund University (2006-2008). Currently she is a dan tranh teacher at Vietnam National Academy of Music.

Jakob Riis Composer, laptop musician, improviser. Active in the experimental fields of electronic music, soundart, sonic webart, improvisation and contemporary composition. Currently Jakob Riis is performing with: Copenhagen Art Ensemble, Rød Planet (with Liudas Mockunas and Stefan Pasborg), The GhettoBlaster Ensemble, The Minijacks (laptop quartet), Toxicum and Expanded Botànics.

Dang Hao was born in 1970. Lives and works in Hanoi. Educated at the Hanoi Finance University and at the Academy of Journalism and Communication. Dang Hao is a member of Hanoi Photographer Association. He works for many magazines and newspapers as a journalist-photographer. He won several prizes/awards both in press and photography. His recent researches are Movement Photograph and Vietnam Orchid.

